'Humane' advice offered as public suspected of attacks on seagulls

LASER beams, special paint and even hooded tops are among a raft of new measures put forward to defend Seaton against nuisance seagulls.

The animal rights group PETA has written to councils across Devon and Cornwall offering them advice on how to deal with the gull problem in a "humane" way.

The call for action comes in the wake of increasing concern that members of the public are targeting gulls in vigilante attacks.

PETA is now urging councils not to "demonise" the birds and is suggesting several new methods to deter them.

"Gulls are intelligent, sensitive birds who, like all wild animals, just want to feed themselves, find somewhere safe to live and protect their young," said a spokesman.

"Given the decline in gull numbers across the country and the numerous hazards that they face because of human activities, kind people should be

by Peter Hodges
peter@pemedia.co.uk

helping them, not planning to wipe them out.

"Gulls can get hurt when they collide with buildings and traffic, get their beaks caught in fishing hooks or choke on pieces of plastic, and they are sometimes even deliberately attacked by callous individuals."

Councillor Tony Woodman, the Mayor of Seaton, said the town council would be reviewing its approach to deterring the birds over the next few months, following a series of complaints about gulls nesting in garden sheds.

A falconer has been employed to patrol the seafront once a week for the last two years but it is believed that the birds have now been driven inland.

Concerned campaigners fear that gulls could be subject to further attacks this summer and are calling for local authorities to take a more animal-friendly approach.

Lampposts can be plastered with special gull-resistant 'Flock Off' paint, which reflects sunlight and makes it difficult to land, PETA says.

Green lasers and loud sonic devices can also be used to deter the birds in a humane way, while bird slides and specially-designed coils can prevent gulls nesting on rooftops.

PETA even advises residents to wear hooded tops and hats to protect themselves against swooping gulls.

The advice follows the alleged poisoning of a seagull in Bridport earlier this summer, which came soon after a Chihuahua puppy was swooped on and killed by gulls in Honiton.

One Seaton resident, who asked not to be named, said the gulls were a constant annoyance and called on the council to take urgent action.

"They have been driving everyone mad this summer," he said. "We really need to find a way to solve this problem before it gets completely out of hand."

In Devizes, Wiltshire, councillors ordered the destruction of more than 600 seagull eggs after residents complained that the birds had made life intolerable.

And across the Channel in France, gull prevention drones that spray nests with a sterilising liquid to prevent eggs hatching have also been trialled.

East Devon District Council has several control measures in place to deal with the birds where there are public health or safety concerns. The council has also produced its own 'Gull Gazette' newsletter providing tips on simple steps members of the public can take to deter the birds.

It urges seaside food vendors to make sure snacks are not left within easy reach of the birds.

Its advice reads: "Food outlets – and their takeaway customers – need to be careful about providing food for gulls, as this attracts birds to town centres where they will breed and increase in numbers.

"Whilst harming gulls is not acceptable, we can discourage them from becoming a nuisance by controlling the amount of leftover food they can find and by using other methods to curb breeding."

Under the Wildlife and Countryside Act, gulls are protected by law and it is an offence to "intentionally kill, injure or take any wild bird".

■ MAKING THE GRADE: Students from Seaton and Beer were among the top performers as A-level results were opened at schools across East Devon.

Annabel Jackson (pictured, left), from Beer, was the standout success story at Axe Valley Community College, after picking up three A* grades in English Literature, History and Sociology to book her place at the University of Exeter.

Courtney Finley-Shaw (also pictured) was another of the top performers, after securing two BTEC Distinctions and an A-level B grade to earn a spot at Surrey University studying Paramedic Practice.

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

AXMINSTER

Call for action over traffic chaos

AXMINSTER's largest employer says regular traffic chaos damages business and deters entrepreneurs from investing in the town.

In an open letter, Axminster Tools & Machinery MD Ian Styles asks for action – not words – saying there is a risk of “irrevocable damage” to the infrastructure and reputation of the town.

The letter was sent to – and aimed at – Axminster Town Council, but a copy has also been sent to the Pulman's View letter page.

Mr Styles wrote: “I am writing, on behalf of the board of Axminster Tools & Machinery to convey my extreme disappointment in respect of the intense traffic burden in the town.

“The level of traffic passing from the A303 or M5 routes onto the A35 coastal road and vice versa is now at levels which, as a conduit, the town can no longer sustain. This is particularly highlighted when roads such as Stoney Lane are subjected to closure/repairs.

Mr Styles explained: “We have new office accommodation which we are in the process of letting and the severe traffic congestion does not entice those considering to relocate or invest in a start-up business to come to Axminster.

“The town is fast becoming the Honiton of yesterday when it was just one massive traffic jam, prior to the by-pass being built.”

As previously reported, Persimmon Homes (South West Ltd) has sought outline planning permissions for more than 400 houses on land between Sector Lane and Lyme Road.

The project includes the provision of a relief road (running through the development from points at Chard and Lyme roads), a primary school and a community centre.

But, as the proposal stands, the estate itself and the relief road would be built in phases over a number of years.

What price recycling your cereal boxes?

NEWS that East Devon District Council will soon be adding cardboard to the list of items you'll be able to put in your green recycling box has been met with a mixed reaction.

Quite why it's taken so long (South Somerset District Council has offered the service for YEARS) is one matter; the other is the downside – under the new scheme our black wheelie bins will only be emptied once every three weeks, rather than fortnightly.

Although you could argue if you're recycling everything you should be recycling (the new service also adds plastic tubs, pots and trays to the list) you'll be using your wheelie bin less and less, three weeks is a long time to wait if you forget to put the rubbish out.

And, surely, it will cost EDDC less to collect our refuse only once every three weeks than it will to recycle the cardboard and extra plastic? Can we expect a reduction in our Council Tax bill if the number of refuse collections is reduced?

The new plan will be trialled in Exmouth and Feniton, which – if it proves to be successful – could be rolled out across the rest of East Devon next year.

■ LAST weekend I attended a fundraising event across the border in Lyme Regis, along with a few colleagues from work. Headlined by Somerset's finest musical export since The Wurzels, the charity gig saw Barry Paull performing his now well established tribute to Elvis.

It brought back memories of when the View From series of papers was first launched in 2005; we booked Elvis – I mean Barry – to give away copies of our first issue at Honiton Tesco.

As launch parties go it was certainly, err, different! There were definitely some bemused looks on the faces of those shopping that day.

Ten years... Where does the time go?!

HONITON

Breathing new life into town centre

BUSINESS leaders have set an ambitious target to fill all of Honiton's empty shop fronts by the end of next year.

The chamber of commerce is seeking to ensure the town centre is at full capacity in time for Christmas 2016.

Local traders will work together over the next 18 months to encourage entrepreneurs into Honiton, as part of a renewed effort to boost business.

Colin Wright, chairman of the chamber of commerce, said he was targeting around half a dozen vacant premises in the town centre.

“It's definitely an ambitious target,” he said.

“There are very few towns in this part of the world that will be able to boast a full quota of shops. We already have a strong business community here and we are very close to creating a truly exceptional shopping experience.

There are around 200 shop fronts in Honiton town centre, with fewer than 10 currently vacant.

OTTERY ST MARY

Fight to save last bank as Barclays leaves town

BUSINESS leaders will seek to protect Ottery St Mary's last remaining high street bank, after Barclays announced the imminent closure of its local branch.

The second major closure in the space of a year will leave the town with only one banking outlet – Lloyds – and comes only eight months after NatWest decided to shut its Silver Street branch.

Local traders are desperate to hold onto their sole remaining bank and say they will move to make sure customers are not cut off entirely.

“It's not good news for the town, on a number of fronts,” said John Campion, chairman of the Ottery St Mary Chamber of Commerce.

“Barclays customers will find themselves having to travel to Honiton, and from the point of view of the town it is another major service we are losing. The service that the Post Office has provided since NatWest closed its doors has been excellent. But we would much prefer to keep as many branches as possible open in Ottery.”

SOUTH SOMERSET

Council takes action to improve slow response to customer calls

MEASURES have been put in place to speed up South Somerset District Council (SSDC) switchboard response times after the system was subjected to friendly fire.

A number of councillors were so concerned about slow response time they made complaints themselves, saying the “apparent lack of responsiveness” could cause frustration and disappointment.

A report prepared for SSDC's Scrutiny Committee said: “A number of Scrutiny Committee members have experienced long waiting times and had to abandon calls on several occasions when contacting the council through the main switchboard number 462462.

“Scrutiny members believe that problems have been experienced over the last six months and now the unusual peak of the election is over they believe that there are still perceived delays in speaking to an advisor.”

It has not been possible to produce statistics on response times because there is no such system in place.

The report continued: “Unfortunately, there has been no ability to measure the call answering time since November 2014 when the then call management system was switched off.

“Performance in the first quarter 2014-15 was: 70.5 per cent of calls answered within 30 seconds and 79.2 per cent of calls answered within 60 seconds.

In terms of staff, the Customer Contact Centre has about 13 full-time equivalent staff at the moment.

COLYTON

Consultation opens on town's future development boundary

A CONSULTATION has been launched to help councillors draw up plans for a new development boundary around Colyton.

East Devon District Council is considering new built-up area boundaries (BUABs) for several of East Devon's larger villages, including Beer, as well as Colyton.

The boundaries provide a dividing line between areas of countryside where development can only take place in exceptional circumstances, and settlement areas where applications will be permitted subject to specific criteria.

BUABs already exist around East Devon's main towns, including Axminster, Seaton, Sidmouth, Honiton and Ottery St Mary, but councillors may introduce similar guidelines around Colyton and some of the district's larger villages.

Coffee house owner on epic charity bike ride

by Kevin Fahey

To learn more about male cancer – from prostate to bowel and testicular – see the website at www.malecancer.org

SEATON coffee shop owner Glenn Moorley is taking a break from his barista duties for a week in the saddle as he tackles a mammoth charity cycle ride from Southend-on-Sea to Galway.

Mr Moorley, who owns the Broom Wagon Coffee Shop on Cross Street, set off last week from the Essex seaside town for the 600-miles, six day event in aid of the Male Cancer Awareness Campaign (MCAC).

Glenn, who lives in Kilmington, will join a team of six men who will be riding in the eye-catching kit of the Near Naked Man, which was set up to champion the cause of the MCAC.

"The Near Naked Man is all about raising awareness of prostate cancer and the concept was designed to raise awareness and reduce the culture of embarrassment about male cancer," said Mr Moorley, who is also a trustee of the charity.

"This ride is all about the personal challenge of riding 600 miles in six days and raising the awareness of prostate cancer. The guys have already raised £1,000 so we are not about rattling buckets on the ride itself."

That will be a relief to Glenn and his colleagues as tackling 100 miles a day and kipping down on blow-up mattresses in scout huts will be tough enough.

"And because we are riding from east to west it is likely to be into a headwind all the way which will make it even more of a challenge," added Moorley, who is a keen cyclist and a member of the Axe Valley Pedallers.

The first three days of the ride will be in England with a day in Wales to reach the ferry port at Fishguard and then two days to cross Ireland to reach the finish line in Galway on the west coast.

"After all that we will be driving back home, definitely!" said Moorley.

Cadets take to the water for yacht club activity week

CADET Activity Week at Axe Yacht Club (AYC) saw 24 cadets take part in dinghy sailing and a range of other water-based activities.

There were strong winds out at sea but the River Axe provided a more sheltered location for dinghy training, led by instructor Matt Jeffery.

Axe Yacht Club Cadet activities co-ordinator Amanda Parker said: "At the start of the week the senior cadets helped the less experienced gain confidence in Taz and Topper dinghies.

"Later in the week they showed their skills in the club RS Fevas whilst the junior cadets had instruction in the Toppers and Oppis.

"The cruiser section of AYC gave the cadets the chance to experience 'Big Boat' sailing whilst the AYC motor boaters provided the opportunity to try mackerel fishing. There was some land-based training on the newly constructed dinghy simulator and also instruction on knot tying and race tactics.

"Raft races, canoe sliding supervised by members of the Axe Valley Canoe Club, and other water-based games completed a full-on week leaving the cadets and their parents tired but very happy."

Tories take a stand: Remembering VJ Day at Honiton Show

■ SIMON Card (Colyton & Colyford branch chairman), Cllr Helen Parr, Joy Sneath (constituency deputy chairman), Barbara Kimber and Christopher Kimber (Tiverton and Honiton Conservative Association chairman)

TIVERTON and Honiton Conservatives took a stand at the Honiton Show this year for the first time in living memory.

Christopher Kimber, constituency chairman, said: "It was a great success, we signed up new members, told people about our charity clay shoot on September 12th at Widworthy Barton and sold a good number of raffle tickets."

Neil Parish MP for Tiverton and Honiton was also at the stand as well as visiting many other events and stalls at the show.

The Conservative team spoke to many people at the event, which was, as usual, a great success with locals and visitors alike.

A VJ Day service – to mark the 70th anniversary of the end of the Second World War in the Far East – was held in The Minster, Axminster, on Sunday (August 16th).

The service was organised by the Reverend Geoffrey Walsh, chaplain of the Axminster branch of The Royal British Legion (RBL).

The welcome was given by the Reverend John Streeting (Rector of Axe Valley Mission Community) and the Far East Prisoner of War Association prayer was led by Lesley Frankau, chairman of the Axminster Women's branch of RBL.

The address was given by the Reverend Geoffrey Walsh, with prayers of intercession and thanksgiving led by The Venerable Frank Johnston.

Axminster RBL chairman Ken

Brake led the act of remembrance, and Kohima Epitaph was read by John Granville-Smith.

Organisers described the turnout as "excellent".

Fun day raises £1,000

THE family fun and fete at St Mary's Primary School in Axminster raised more than £1,000. As reported in our August 4th edition, the event was held on July 17th.

School spokesperson Karen Adair summed-up by saying: "Each class helped to run the afternoon, organising their own class stalls including guessing which book belonged to each member of staff.

"The oldest children ran their own juice bar and the littlest children had made animal biscuits to sell. The day made over £1,000 which will enable St Mary's to continue to develop the outdoor area."

ANTHONY Driver celebrated his return to the Beer Regatta barrel rolling competition by leading the Devon Boys to a resounding victory in the Whitbread Cup event.

Driver, who lives in Beer, was a regular in the competition held in Fore Street between the Anchor and Dolphin pubs before concerns with health and safety and insurance meant it was stopped.

"I competed in the barrel rolling the last time it was held on the street and had won it for probably four or five times in a row but when it was moved to Beer Albion Football Club it wasn't the same so I stopped doing it," said Driver.

"This is the first time I have done it again since it returned (to Fore Street) and the atmosphere was great."

Driver was ably assisted by Phil Cooke, Mark Tucker and Ollie Rice as they defeated last year's champions led by James Trewick.

The Beach House Cup for women saw a very popular victory for the Mums Who Should Know Better! The quartet of Lucy Foster, Mel Adkin, Jess Trim and Meg Wayn made a late decision to enter and beat the Barrel Babes.

by Kevin Fahey

The biggest win of the evening came in the Regatta Cup for boys aged 12-15 as brothers Andrew and Daniel Thompson were joined by Max Topham-Steele, who was a prolific winner at Robbie's Races the previous weekend, and Isaac Baker.

TREASURE: Arcadia guitarist Bob Phelps with the rejuvenated banjo and Mrs Longman

Banjo boosts funds for RNLI

WHEN businessman and musician Clive Smith offered to service a vacuum cleaner, he didn't expect to return with a broken 1930s banjo.

Mr Smith is well-known for his Arcadia Jazz Band, but he went to a house in Axminster as part of his day job to have a look at a faulty appliance.

The client, Elizabeth Longman, told Mr Smith that she had recently lost her 47-year-old son, Richard Stretton, who died from a heart condition. During the conversation it emerged that Richard had played banjo professionally.

Mrs Longman still had his banjo which, however, was in a poor state of repair.

But Mr Smith saw potential in the 1930s instrument and offered to have it repaired.

Mr Smith said: "The work was carried out by banjo legend Keith Nelson and returned to Mrs Longman.

"But we both share the idea that instruments are made to be played." As a result, Mr Smith donated £80 to The RNLI in memory of Richard, and got the banjo as a result.

Arcadia guitarist Bob Phelps has made good use of it and Mrs Longman has been invited as a special guest when Arcadia Jazz Band will perform at Axminster Arts Cafe Mini-Festival on September 5th.

Axe amble and fete

WEYCROFT Bridge Bed and Breakfast, on the outskirts of Axminster, will be the scene of The Axe Amble and Fete.

The event, a fundraiser for the ongoing Minster Church Makeover and Restoration Project, will be held on Saturday, August 29th from 11.30am-4.30pm.

The main event of the event is a sponsored five-mile walk, starting and finishing at Weycroft Bed and Breakfast.

Registration for the amble is from 11.45am, with departure at 12noon.

Minster Makeover co-ordinator Jennifer Royle praised bed and breakfast owners Allan Howlings and Margaret Marciniak for use of the grounds, and said:

"There will be a fun dog show, a tastiest bake competition, a decorate-a-jar competition, jewellery making, some demonstrations of flower arranging and Tai Chi and much more.

"Everything opens from 11.30am onwards, and programmes with full details and times are on sale at £1 (£1.50 on the day) at Archway Book Shop and Axminster Tourist Information Centre."

Anyone willing to lend organisers any gazebos or shelters are asked to call Jennifer on 01297 32927.

Gammons Hill crash

ONE person was taken to hospital as a precaution after a four-vehicle accident on the A35 at Gammons Hill just outside Axminster.

The accident happened at about 4.20pm on Saturday August 8th, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "Two appliances, from Colyton and Axminster, were mobilised to a road traffic collision involving four vehicles on Gammons Hill. The heavy rescue tender was also mobilised to attend.

"On arrival, crews found four cars involved, with one person still within one vehicle.

"All persons were free and clear of the other three vehicles."

A spokesperson for the ambulance service said that one person was taken to hospital in Exeter as a precaution.

Chardstock's annual show held in glorious sunshine

■ ON a perfect summer's day, Chardstock Gardening Club held its 34th Annual Show in Chardstock Community Hall. One of the organisers, Graham Vyse, said: "It featured a wonderful exhibition of flowers, plants, vegetables, home produce, arts and crafts. This event, which has become one of the highlights of the social calendar in the village, is a lovely opportunity to celebrate the talents of all age groups in the community. The youngest entrant was four years old and the most senior 97 years old." Pictured above, prizewinners (from left) Graham Vyse, Les Ellis, Rosie Bell (and her dad), Sue Smith, Annabelle Smith, Margaret Churchill, George Smith, Janet Bagguley, Fred Clarkson, Scott Henderson, Donald Burrough, Jill Burrough and Katy Henderson, and below, club committee members were really pleased with the number and quality of entries.

Schoolchildren bury time capsule

Youngsters helped to bury a time capsule near to Broadhembury's new Memorial Hall to mark the building's completion.

Charlie-Ann Swan and Zachary Jennings (pictured), both pupils at the primary school, were appointed as bearers of the capsule, which they received from hall trustee Ron Taylor on the steps of the village store and tea room.

The children then joined their fellow classmates and teachers in a procession to the hall, where the capsule was placed in position ready to be covered in concrete.

John Bull, chairman of the hall trustees, then gave a short address before the children were shown inside the new hall – soon to be used for school PE lessons and other activities.

Not cost effective or morally acceptable to cut fire services

■ IN reply to Mr Richard Cole of Seaton (Pulman's View From, August 28th), I am a recently retired fire-fighter (not fireman as in his letter, the fire service is an equal rights employer, employing female fire-fighters for over thirty years).

A large fire starts small, an average room fire can develop to being fully engulfed in under two minutes, to rescue a human being takes the strength and skills of at least two fit fire crew in full fire kit and breathing apparatus (BA). Whilst they are doing the search and rescuing, a further crew will be fire-fighting whilst monitored by an officer and a BA-entry control firefighter and a pump operator, who is also the driver of the appliance and crews the radio.

A standard crew is sometimes only four firefighters (previously five) enforced by management cut-backs, entailing mobilisation of two appliances as opposed to one; challenge the fire authority with my endorsement.

Fires have dropped considerably in the last 15 years largely due to fire crews proactively providing school talks, group talks and home safety visits, and smoke alarms to anyone in need and, in recent times, vulnerable persons in their own homes.

Crews do not routinely turn out for practice only as the government national budget to fire authorities has been cut by 20 per cent over the last five years with the loss of 5,000 firefighters nationwide and 39 fire stations, with a high percentage being retained (part-time) firefighters provide 80 per cent of the cover across Devon and Somerset and recruiting is on-going to ensure speedy response to emergencies; they need to live within a mile or five minutes of the station.

Cut backs and closure of stations and the removal of home office response times have increased the turnout times by two minutes across the spectrum of roles that the fire service covers; firefighting, road traffic collisions, chemical incidents, terrorist attacks, flooding, water-line, animal-confined space and urban search and rescue, and medical corresponding as in Seaton and Axminster; as first response to medical emergencies due to the lack of ambulances and stations, many lives have been saved by these skilled (part-time) crews.

Firefighter deaths have increased in the last 10 years by more than double - they have as much right to come home safe and in one piece as the next person; these cuts do not help. Reducing UK wide budgets and numbers of firefighters could lead to more deaths of both members of the public and firefighters.

A government plan to replace 46 control rooms across England with nine regional control centres linked by a new IT system was a comprehensive failure, according to the National Audit Office. The Department for Communities and Local Government cut its losses in 2010, seven years after it started, but at least £469million was wasted; no IT system delivered, eight of nine new control centres remaining empty and costly to maintain.

It is neither cost-effective nor morally acceptable to cut vital fire services in ways that may endanger both public and firefighter safety. Having been a member of an Urban Search & Rescue team that recovered four dead firefighter colleagues I feel that your view is 'it has not happened to me so it does not affect me', all cutbacks will affect everybody at some point.

All data is verifiable.

Town cannot sustain traffic levels

■ AN open letter to Axminster Town Council:

Regrettably, I am unable to attend tonight's meeting personally and therefore I am writing, on behalf of the Board of Axminster Tools & Machinery and also as the lead person supervising three significant commercial property development pension funds, to convey my extreme disappointment in respect of the ongoing issues concerning the intense traffic burden in the town.

The level of traffic passing from the A303 or M5 routes onto the A35 coastal road and vice versa is now at levels which as a conduit the town can no longer sustain. This is particularly highlighted when roads such as Stoney Lane are subjected to closure or repairs, the latter possibly failing because they were not built to endure such high levels of traffic.

The impact of this traffic is now placing an unfair burden on businesses such as our own where we work on two sites at either end of the town and those who need to travel through the town either on business or to shop. In addition we have new office accommodation which we are in the process of letting and the severe traffic congestion which now exists does not entice those considering to relocate or invest in a start-up business to come to Axminster.

The town is fast becoming the Honiton of yesterday when it was just one massive traffic jam, prior to the bypass being built. Our town has and is seeing significant housing development which should bring a new intensity of life, encouraging new shops or businesses to open, hopefully in a new look town centre. The town should be enjoying vibrancy similar to that of neighbouring towns such as Bridport or Honiton but sadly the severe traffic hold ups mean that visitors now avoid the town due to its reputation of poor traffic flow and long delays.

The intention to consider everyone's point of view is just that, an intention, but what we need is urgent action to circumnavigate the town so that we can develop our own centre into what should be one of a great community and a centre of commerce for the Axe Valley and its surrounding area. We, as a company, plan forward each year for a level of growth and our strategic objectives, and we call upon you now for urgent action and decision making before there is irrevocable damage done to the infrastructure and reputation of the town.

We need a strategic plan from the council that sees the town positioned well for the future, able to secure commercial investment to provide jobs for those persons who will occupy the new housing. We need action rather than words; words have taken too many years and the town now needs the investment it deserves to move forward into the future.

IAN STYLES,
Managing director, Axminster Tools & Machinery

EDDC property maintenance

■ I READ with interest that EDDC's maintenance over the last 3 years was £9,000,000 per annum on 4,245 properties, ie over £2,000 per property each year. As an owner (and repairer and maintainer) of my own house, this is a surprisingly high figure (well over £6,000 for the three years) and I can only assume included some updating which was of a one-off nature, not to be needed again for a number of years. Perhaps the budget for this work is in fact already somewhat on the high side and should be re-assessed in view of the current need for all of us to tighten our budgets, and perhaps the system of tendering needs a fresh look to see if "value for money" is always being obtained? Over to you Jill Elson.

Election failings

■ IT is encouraging to hear that failings in the electoral process in East Devon will be tackled in the future. Does this mean that councillors will NO LONGER be allowed to sit at the entrance to polling booths, as happened this May, and that polling stations will NOT be properties belonging to or obviously associated with any particular party?

Big Tick Project to track rising threat of Lyme disease

BIG Tick Project to track rising threat of Lyme disease

Vets across the UK are set to take part in the Big Tick Project, the largest nationwide collection of ticks from dogs in a bid to help scientists, led by Professor Richard Wall at the University of Bristol, track what is feared to be a growing threat to people and their dogs from tick-borne zoonotic diseases such as Lyme disease (Borreliosis).

In the UK, Public Health England estimates the number of new cases each year at around 3,000 while Lyme disease charities say the figure could even be as high as 15,000 annually. However, the majority of people are unaware that this potentially debilitating condition also affects our pet dogs.

Lyme disease is caused by a bite from an infected tick. Dogs can be bitten while being taken for walks through wooded areas or parkland in both urban and rural areas. Signs including lameness, lethargy and fever can be seen and, left untreated; these can lead to more serious conditions such as kidney disease and heart failure. Many cases of tick infestation are likely to go unnoticed by owners as they are only detected by a thorough examination.

Research released today to coincide with the launch finds an alarming lack of awareness amongst dog owners about ticks and Lyme disease: 47 per cent of dog owners surveyed don't know that ticks can transmit diseases to both dogs and humans, whilst over half (54 per cent) of dog owners don't know that Lyme disease affects both dogs and humans.

Throughout spring and early summer when ticks are most active, vets taking part in the Big Tick Project will be giving dogs visiting their practice a tick check. The ticks collected by vet practices will be sent for testing to the team of scientists at the University of Bristol leading the Big Tick Project.

Cabot Institute member Professor Richard Wall and colleagues in Bristol's School of Biological Sciences will be examining the ticks for the presence of Lyme Disease and other tick-borne diseases which it is feared may be emerging in the UK. Owners whose dogs have taken part in the project at participating vets will receive a Big Tick Project certificate and have helped advance the knowledge surround tick-borne disease in the UK.

To reduce the risk associated with ticks in dogs, veterinary surgeons have innovative and convenient treatments that are only available on prescription. The options available to protect dogs against exposure to ticks include spot-ons (typically applied every four weeks), sprays, collars and oral chewable formulations which can give up to 12 weeks protection. For best advice on how to remove a tick correctly from your pet please speak to your vet.

Bridge exercises the brain at Honiton club

A HIGH Court Judge recently pronounced that Bridge is a sport and could qualify for lottery funding. One definition of "sport" is that it is "an activity involving physical or mental skill in which an individual or team competes against another or others for entertainment". The debate centres on whether the brain is a muscle, as claimed by the English Bridge Union (EBU). Honiton Bridge Club players welcome the news that their weekly duplicate sessions are sport and that their brains are exercised, even if they do not involve physical activity!

This EBU-affiliated club was established 30 years ago and met at the St John Ambulance hall in Honiton until earlier this year when the St John organisation advised that they were relinquishing the hall. This forced a search for a new venue and because our club has a wide catchment area, of 20 miles, we required premises in central Honiton.

We have been successful in securing the hire of the Mountbatten Park Sports & Social Club in Ot-tery Moor Lane, Honiton for our Monday-evening sessions. This location has all the facilities we require and excellent parking.

We offer a good standard of play and benefit from computer-based dealing and scoring. Results are compiled in real time and the on-going scores displayed whilst play is in progress. Information about Honiton Bridge Club can be found on our website <http://www.bridgewebs.com/honiton>.

New to the area and a duplicate bridge player? Joining us would be a great way of making new friends! Please contact the Club Secretary on 01404 46212.

Warren Buffett, the most successful investor of the 20th century, sadly not one of our members, once said "Bridge is such a sensational game that I wouldn't mind being in jail if I had three cellmates who were decent players and who were willing to keep the game going 24 hours a day".

Honiton 'excavations'

LAST week in New Street I heard a local wag singing the old Billy Cotton song 'There's another hole in the road'. There was indeed, the most recent of dozens of excavations in that ancient thoroughfare. Since New Street, the former London Road, is surely the most excavated site in Devon 'pipe laying' is obviously a cover story; like the sign which says 'diversion'. Some are convinced this is the latest chapter in Sir Mortimer Wheeler's hunt for 'The Grandeur that is Rome'. Rumour has it that Tony Robinson's Time Team has been summoned. Road closures and inconvenience may be a small price to pay for buried treasure or gold in that there hill. Another excavation can be expected any time and will produce the usual expectant crowd of fascinated watchers. It is Honiton's little wonder of the world. It should be in the tourist guide.

Peace symbol features in posters

CONGRATULATIONS to Seaton and District Lions on their annual Peace poster Award won by children from Beer, Colyton and Seaton primary schools (4 August). It is good to see children being creative about peace – and what wonderful peace posters. All the winners show the peace symbol invented in 1958 by artist Gerald Holtom, whom I once met on the Aldermaston peace march. The symbol, which was first used on a 'lollipop' round poster is based on a circle symbolising the world within which are the semaphore symbols for n (nuclear) and d (disarmament) – not the Mercedes Benz symbol please! The CND logo is probably the most copied logo in the world and the one most used on T-shirts, badges and even a men's spray by Lynx. Gerald Holtom died in 1985 – having not copyrighted it he earned no money from his brilliant design; he was happy people around the world were using it for peace.

And before anyone says nuclear weapons will never be used, let us remember they have been used – 70 years ago (August 1945). One bomb from one plane destroyed each of the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki killing a total of 340,000 people, most civilian men, women and children; they are still dying from radiation. We who experienced war say Never Again and that means we do not need nukes like Trident. They will cost the earth. Thank you Lions and children for the peace symbols. Well done. Peace to you all.

Tuesday is the new Friday

BEING a new boy to the town I decided to enter the annual Seaton in Bloom competition, all summer toiled and, with not inconsiderable expense, did my best to create an attractive seafront garden, reaching a crescendo in anticipation of the judges well published visit on Friday, August 7th.

An early start for final tidying, wait in all day, message left on council answerphone, stayed in all evening – no sign. Saturday and Sunday passed, Monday afternoon the heavens opened and made a real mess of my efforts. Despondent Tuesday and guess what? Totally unannounced their honours turned up to judge. When questioned about Friday they said that should have never been published and no apology was offered.

As a new boy to the town, which I very much enjoy, I try to keep open minded despite often hearing from those more experienced the expression "well, that's Seaton for you". Having now experienced the attitude of its top citizens maybe I am beginning to understand why "Tuesday is the new Friday".

PETER WOOLLACOTT,
Seaton

Rearranged garden judging was shameful

HAVE you been looking at the front gardens in Seaton lately?

They are so lovely. So much care and attention has been lavished on them, not only for the Seaton Garden Competition but for giving people pleasure who happen to be passing by.

How shameful that the day of judging was cancelled. Residents were not advised and through the grapevine we were told it would be judged on Monday. Finally, Tuesday was deemed more convenient.

Shame on Seaton Town Council and the judging panel that they could not put the same time and effort into judging that the caring home gardeners of Seaton managed to do.

Antiques Bazaar

Discover a Real Find at Antiques Bazaar

WE ALL enjoy discovering a real "find". Well at Antiques Bazaar, Crewkerne you will encounter more than one "find" this weekend.

Firstly this large collaborative trading centre is home to almost 100 dealers offering a vast range of antiques, ceramics, jewellery, furniture, lighting, textiles, metalwork and collectables. Outside is a great plant centre with garden furniture, planters etc. On site is The Home Bakery for home made snacks and meals, including vegetarian and vegan options.

And Saturday 22 August is also the launch of an unusual motorcycle concept – the FSK full-sized 1960's style replica bike recreated in barn-find condition, supported by a restored 1933 James motorcycle and Yeovil Freewheelers. Got a bike? Bring yours along too.....! Crewkerne Lions Club will be in attendance with a charity raffle and a few other surprises.....make this a date for your diary! Antiques Bazaar. Tel 01460 77121. www.antiquesbazaar.co.uk

Piers Motley Auctions

PIERS Motley Auctions of Exmouth Devon runs regular specialist Antique and Collectors Sales offering a competitive modern service utilising the latest internet technology. All sales are placed on our own website and two specialist auction sites.

The Antique and Collectors sales in addition go onto a specialist search engine and we have live internet bidding which gives us both a National and International Market (often selling to a collector who will pay far more than a dealer). This is achieved using www.thesaleroom.com

Rare ceramics, porcelain, silver, jewellery, objets d'art, ephemera, quality furniture and other antiques and collectables are given similar advertising as going to much bigger auction houses, but with less commission charged.

A photograph of every lot is published, with some lots having multiple images.

Commission on consignments of fine Antiques and Collectables is negotiable depending on value.

Items for our Antique and Collectors sales come from all over East Devon including Exmouth, Woodbury, Budleigh Salterton, Topsham and Exeter. We also collect Antiques for sale from the South Hams, Mid Devon, North Devon, Cornwall and Dorset.

General & Collectors Sales

In addition to our Specialist Antique and Collectors sale we have a regular

General and Collectors Sale where less specialist Antiques and Collectables are sold alongside everyday modern furnishings from house clearances and private consignments.

On Site Sales

Occasionally it is better to hold on site auctions. This might be a commercial property such as an hotel, machinery sale such as farm equipment or a residential property where the 'atmosphere' of the site will enhance the sale ability of quality items.

Valuations

Piers Motley Auctions also offers a comprehensive valuation service to satisfy the conditions set for Probate, Family Division and Insurance. Completed valuations include photographic images of all items of note, in case of future queries Free valuations are also offered for items being consigned to auction.

House Clearance

A comprehensive house clearance service is offered. If necessary this can include environmental disposal of any unsalable items. When required a full cleaning service is also offered.

THE PRODUCERS are one of the UK's top blues/rock bands having played Clubs and Festivals throughout Europe, the USA, Bahamas, New Zealand and Australia.

With 11 albums to their credit they return to play their annual BBQ at the Square and Compass (they also play their annual New Years Eve Party at the same venue!) This time they have locals The Bastardo Bros and Eds Mate playing in the garden from 6pm on Saturday, August 22nd, with the main concert in The Barn later in the evening. Camping is available.

Tickets are £15 in advance, or £18 on the door.

For more details and to book call 01823 480467. You can also book tickets at Black Cat Records (Taunton), Taunton TIC, online at www.mojopromo.co.uk or from the venue.

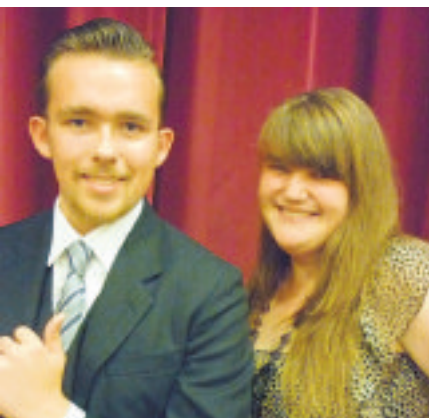

Sister Act set to rock Seaton

EXCITEMENT is brewing in Seaton for Testudo Musical Player's forthcoming show 'SISTER ACT' being staged at The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall, from Wednesday, September 16th to Saturday, September 19th at 7.30pm each night.

If you saw their production of 'Our House' and 'Summer Holiday' the last two years then you know what a treat you are in for with this exceptionally lively, humorous script and score when it's under the direction of the effervescent Debbie Bradley! As Mother Superior sings ... "I've got priest doing moves like Travolta, a communion that's somehow risqué" which sort of sums up this award winning show!

Tickets have just gone on sale and are eagerly being snapped up already so make sure you book yours today from the Box Office: 01297 625699

Get folk-ready for the weekend

THIS coming weekend sees the return of Lyme Folk - three days of full-on festivities - with the cream of folk lining up to play at venues, large and small, all around the town, including a continuous stream of free concerts on the seafront.

With nearly 50 acts, on three different stages, as well as pop-up gigs in cafes and pubs, the weekend promises to be even bigger and better than in previous years say the organisers.

Over three nights, one venue, Marine Theatre, will host headline concerts from the alt-folk combo Turin Brakes, the multi-award-winning husband and wife duo, Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman and Lyme Folk Weekend's very own patron, Jim Causley & Friends respectively.

Each evening will also feature a raft of up-and-coming acts at The Pilot Boat. Here, there's an opportunity to get a glimpse of stars in the making. For example, last year featured the all-girl Devon trio, Wildwood Kin, who this year were nominated by Radio 2 Folk Awards as best new folk act.

Saturday is the busiest day of the weekend kicking off with a grand Morris Parade down the high street in the morning, followed by a massed dance off on the seafront and a spectacular finale in the early evening? With Morris dancers converging on Lyme from all around the country, dancing in the streets is guaranteed over the three days.

This year, the Mariners Hotel will host first Folk BBQ on Saturday afternoon in the hotel's gardens overlooking Lyme Bay, featuring The Uke Man League, a four-piece ukulele band with a cheeky set-list to pave the way for a full evening's entertainment throughout town.

Saturday night also sees the return of the popular Ceilidh which will be held in the Langmoor Marquee on the seafront, which incidentally also acts as the festival beer tent and the venue for workshops and singalongs throughout the weekend.

And for the first time, this year's festival will be supporting the blood cancer charity, Anthony Nolan, with two events to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Frank Purslow's collection of English folk songs, Marrow Bones. These will be held in the Langmoor Marquee on Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

Julie Sheppard, the festival's publicist said "This promises to be our best festival so far...it's insanely ambitious with music planned all over town for the entire weekend. But from my experience it's often the unplanned performances which create that special Lyme vibe. So, my advice is - grab a free copy of the programme, plan your time, buy your tickets - then just go with the flow!"

Copies of the free programme will be available throughout the town over the weekend and from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre.

Tickets for concerts at Marine Theatre from www.lyme-folk.com or 01297 442138 (Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis).

Admission to Lyme Folk BBQ at Mariners Hotel, concerts at The Pilot Boat and Saturday's Ceilidh - all £5 on the door.

All other events are free.

A taste of jam

TRAFFIC JAMS are to be expected at this time of year but there's another kind of jam that's rather more welcome - it's of the musical variety and what's more it's free!

Unlike a traffic jam, a Jazz Jam gig at Ilminster Arts Centre is well worth hanging around for - a free concert given by the talented musicians who get together every month at the Arts Centre for an informal jam session.

The Jazz Jam gig on the 21st will be a showcase gig for the players who have come along to the jazz jam over the past year or so, in order that they can show off their talents.

Nick Patterson, Dave Roberts and Steve Barnett on Piano, Bass and Drums respectively will be the rhythm section for the evening and Duncan Anselm, Tony Roberts and Daniel Pogorzelski are among the sax players who will be playing.

The Jazz Jammers are hoping that other jammers will also turn up to show off their skills. The general style of jazz will be modern and each player will be featured as a solo and an ensemble performer.

The Jazz Jam gigs are free of charge but a donation to the Arts Centre would be appreciated. There are no suppers for this event, but there is a well-stocked bar!

DixieGrass to play at Lower Bruckland

DIXIEGRASS are four singer-instrumentalists performing old and new standards - Blues Folk, Country, Bluegrass, Classic Jazz, Skiffle and much more - all in the unique and inimitable style they've made their own.

DixieGrass is an all-acoustic band. No backing tapes or tracks, nothing to detract from a great band performing vocals, red-hot instrumentals and good honest music and entertainment - live.

There's a lot of humour in the band and they love nothing more than sharing it with an audience; after all, they want everyone to have as good a time as they're having!

DixieGrass will play at Lower Bruckland Nature Reserve (just off the A3052 near Boshill X EX13 8ST) on Sunday, August 30th.

See the advert on page 26 for more details.

Western Counties Heavy Horse Society

THE Western Counties Heavy Horse Society was formed in 1975 by a group of people who wanted to advance the interest of the Heavy Horse. Initially it was confined to the boundaries of Devon, Dorset and Somerset but our current membership of over 250 live in areas far beyond these counties. The Society is run by a Council of 12 members and events are always held in the South West.

Annually, we hold a 'Working Day' and 'Ploughing Match' to which members are given free entry. During the year we hold other activities i.e. talks, film shows, visits and social evenings. Our aim is to offer a practical service to horse owners and provide pleasure and recreation to those interested in the Heavy Horse.

WORKING DAY

A THEME 'From Plough to Loaf' is demonstrated and at the end of the day bread is baked and sold on the field. Horses work with a variety of vintage implements and corn is cut and harvested in the traditional way.

This year, the 40th Anniversary 'Working Weekend', will be held on Saturday and Sunday August 22nd and 23rd from 11am at Kingsdown Farm, Branscombe, Seaton, Devon, EX10 0PD (on the A3052) by kind permission of Mr. Gerald Knight and family. Minor Rally has major appeal

A POPULAR CLASSIC vehicle show in East Devon is expecting to receive a record number of vehicle entries when it 'opens the gate' on Sunday, 16th August, writes David Morgan.

The annual Classic Vehicle Gathering is staged by the Devon branch of the Morris Minor Owners Club and takes place on the Imperial Recreation Ground in Exmouth. Unlike a lot of other organised car shows this one does not require exhibitors to book in advance or pay an entry fee. Nor is there an age-related cut-off date for the vehicles on display.

So popular has the no-entry-form, no-fee format become that it now attracts in excess of 250 classic and more recent cars and motorcycles of interest. These range from being completely standard and original to those that are personalised to the owner's taste and even used on a daily basis. Adding further variety are displays from various regional car clubs which include Chrysler PT Cruisers, the BMW Car Club Devon Region, Torbay Old Wheels, Crash Box & Classic Car Club, Mazda MX-5 and the MG Rover South West Owners Club.

Spokesperson, Lorna Moggridge said: "Every year we welcome vehicle exhibitors and visitors who support this show because of its informal atmosphere and the fact they can turn up and depart when they want to. As we don't require vehicle owners to book in advance, we do get some interesting vehicles turning up on the day!"

As in previous years the Classic Vehicle Gathering will be looking to raise funds for Devon Air Ambulance Trust. Anyone attending can make a voluntary donation on the day in one of the collecting buckets.

The Classic Vehicle Gathering takes place from 10am until 4.30PM.

For further details ring Nickie Tilley on (01395) 225614 or Lorna Moggridge on (01823) 672693.

■ Morris Minors are still finding plenty of appeal, judging by the number of examples seen at the annual Classic Vehicle Gathering in Exmouth

Annual Open Exhibition winners announced

THE ILMINSTER Annual Open exhibition opened at Ilminster Arts Centre on Monday, August 10th and the winners have been announced! Out of a strong field of entries, the overall winner was Jenny Graham with her mixed media work 'Visitation'. Joint second prize was awarded to Mark Beesley's oil on canvas painting 'Wind Turbines' and 'Writhing Ash' a graphite drawing by Paul Newman. The 3D prize was won by 'Dive in' by Brendon Murless, a piece in stone, resin and iron.

The following artists' work was Highly Commended: 'Barn Owl' by Linda Hampson, 'Ref 1303' by Lawrence Nash, and 'Pepito Puzzle' by Pepito.

The exhibition, which continues until September 4th is one of the most popular annual events at Ilminster Arts Centre and showcases a truly inspirational range of artistic talent. There are figurative works as well as abstract pieces, with exhibits demonstrating the breadth of materials that local artists are choosing to work with: this year's display includes a neon light installation, collages, pastels, acrylics, watercolours and mixed media pieces; there is also a strong showing of sculpture, including works in copper, ceramic, plaster, terracotta and limestone.

Although the main prizes have been announced, there is still one very important prize yet to be decided - the Visitors' Choice award, the winner of which will be revealed at the end of the exhibition. Visitors to the exhibition are invited to cast their vote for their favourite work - look out for the white ballot box at the entrance to the gallery.

Open Air Theatre: Twelfth Night

JOIN US at The Marine Theatre to welcome The Lord Chamberlain's Men performing an open air production of Twelfth Night in Theatre Square, Lyme Regis on Tuesday, August 18th.

Twelfth Night is a classic Shakespearean comedy built around the increasingly hilarious confusion of mistaken identities. Add unrequited love, bawdiness, wordplay, and the rise and fall of pomposity into the mix - with a healthy dash of cross-dressing to boot, and the result is a fast paced tangled love story that remains fresh, entertaining and relevant today.

Produced by Mark Puddle and directed by Andrew Normington, the excellent cast of Lord Chamberlain's Men are all male, as in the days of Shakespeare's Globe Theatre, and wear authentic Elizabethan costume.

'If music be the food of love, play on!'

It's Shakespeare's best-loved romantic comedy, and where more memorable to see it than with the backdrop of the Jurassic coastline?

A magical night of outdoor theatre for all Shakespeare lovers!

Please bring low back seating / rugs and a picnic.

Tuesday, August 18th, 6.30pm at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis. The show's running time is approximately 2hrs 10 mins.

Full Price: £14.50, under 16s: £8.50, family (2 adults, 2 concs): £38.00.

To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

3 BEDROOM, SEMI-DETACHED PROPERTY IN COLYTON - £235,000

A SPACIOUS 1950's semi-detached property situated right in the heart of the pretty little East Devon town of Colyton. The accommodation comprises three bedrooms, shower room and bathroom, spacious lounge, kitchen and small conservatory. Outside, there is a surprising amount of garden running along 3 sides of the property and enjoying a lovely view of the octagonal Church tower. The property is within a short walk of amenities and bus services, as well as the nearby Dolphin Street car park. Residents can purchase a parking permit for just £40 per year but free parking is available throughout the town. Colyton is a pretty little market town (more like a village) with a small town centre offering a good range of daily needs including two convenience stores, fish and chip shop, butcher, hairdressers, post office, small stationers, pharmacy, health centre, garden centre, library and a few other individual shops. On the edge of the town is the Seaton tramway station which operates services throughout the summer along the Axe Estuary, linking Colyton and Seaton, which is very popular with tourists. The Jurassic Coast and pretty harbour at Axmouth is just 2 miles away and the ever-popular seaside resort of Lyme Regis just 7 miles to the east. There is a primary school in the town and the well regarded Colyton Grammar School is just over a mile away. A beautiful Church is at the heart of the town and there is an interesting variety of architecture. Nearby Axminster (6 miles), has a mainline station with regular trains to London Waterloo and Exeter. The city of Exeter is approx. 25mins by car and the airport just outside Exeter is approx. 19 miles. The property is offered with an asking price of £235,000. Please call Gordon & Rumsby to book a viewing or for more information on 01297 553768.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Jim Rose

Qualified Window Service Engineer

My name is Jim Rose and I am a fully qualified window and door service engineer, repairing double glazed windows and doors in the Exeter and East Devon area for over 30 years. before establishing my own repair business 20 years ago I worked for national companies Anglian and Europlas where I gained vast experience in many areas of my trade and excellent customer care skills.

I specialise in Misty double glazed sealed unit replacement, this is when it looks like there is condensation between the glass, all my replacement units are manufactured locally and carry a 5 year guarantee. I measure and fit all my own units which helps to keep costs competitive.

If your windows and doors are draughty, leaking or not closing correctly there are things that can be done to resolve these problems, sometimes it is just a simple adjustment or maybe new hinges or closing mechanism, no matter how old they are there is normally a solution many parts are still available.

I offer free quotations with no call out charge and all my repair work carries a guarantee.

I can be contacted on 07779 178800 or

The perfect blend of versatility, sophistication and outstanding grip

CUSTOMER demand for 'a car for all seasons' means Compact Crossover sales continue to rise in the UK. Buy a brand new 65-registration PEUGEOT 2008 from next month and get the perfect mix of practicality and desirability. Furthermore, choose a model with the brand's acclaimed Grip Control technology and it will provide exceptional performance all year round, whatever the weather.

More than 30,000 UK customers have bought a PEUGEOT 2008 since its showroom launch two years ago. Expected to be popular with September new car buyers is the 2008 Urban Cross special edition, featuring Grip Control as standard. This system uses electronic driver aids, coupled with special tyres, to offer drivers greater traction.

Based on Allure trim level, the Urban Cross includes: rear Parking Aid, unique Urban Cross badging, side decals and electric, heated and folding door mirrors. It's priced from just £16,495 OTR.

Standard on every PEUGEOT 2008 is an athletic design, engaging driving experience, high levels of equipment, comfort and outstanding quality in materials and finish. A choice of eight striking interior trims and five different alloy wheels are available.

Bringing a new level of innovation to the Crossover, it combines PEUGEOT's expertise from two sectors – the smart design and versatile packaging of the 3008 Crossover and the small car performance of the 208 Supermini.

With a characterful presence, the PEUGEOT 2008 is intended for young city-dwellers who love the urban environment, but also enjoy escaping it! Power comes from the latest generation of efficient PEUGEOT BlueHDi diesel and award-winning, 'Engine of the Year' three-cylinder PureTech petrol engines. CO2 emissions are as low as 95g/km, while combined cycle fuel economy is as high as 78.5mpg.

The interior of the PEUGEOT 2008 provides the driver and passengers with a spacious and flexible cabin, with a cockpit-style instrument panel and aircraft-type handbrake. A smart satin chrome finish to the air vents, handbrake lever, steering wheel, gear lever and touch-screen trims all create a genuinely premium feel.

Folding the 60:40 split rear bench increases the boot volume from 360 to 1,194 litres. One press of the button at the top of the rear seat back is all it takes to fold the seat, as the base cushion retracts automatically. The wide tailgate and low loading lip – just 60cm off the ground – allows exceptional ease of use.

Priced from just £13,195, the PEUGEOT 2008 is available to buy using the brand's innovative 'Just Add Fuel™' finance package. Combining all motoring costs into a single monthly payment, the PEUGEOT 2008 Active PureTech 1.2-litre 82bhp is available for £199pcm, over 36 months, following a deposit of £2,080 (4.9% APR).

New diesel engine for Jeep Cherokee

▲ Jeep Cherokee

CHANGES to the popular Cherokee range have just been announced by Jeep, with details of a powerful new engine, offering an augmented range with better fuel economy, greater torque and improved standard content.

The current two-litre diesel 140 hp manual versions have been joined by a modern 2.2-litre MultiJet engine, available with 185 hp and 200 hp outputs, and offering a significantly wider spread of torque from low rpm, greater power, improved performance and better fuel economy than the out-going two-litre 170 hp automatic engine. The new 2.2 engine is already Euro 6 compliant.

Available only with Jeep's segment-first nine-speed automatic gearbox, and matched to the Active-Drive four-wheel-drive systems, all new Cherokee 2.2 versions are packed with equipment. The Cherokee range, from entry level, now has additional specification as standard including electric tailgate, windscreen wipers with rain sensor, dusk sensor, eight-position electrically adjustable seat, four-position lumbar adjustment and automatic anti-dazzle rear-view mirror with built-in microphone. The specification on all trim levels gives Cherokee a highly attractive equipment-to-price offering within the mid-size SUV class.

The new 2.2 MultiJet II engine, which places Jeep Cherokee towards the top of its class for performance, refinement and true efficiency, can now be ordered in the UK. Two power variants are available: 200 hp and 185 hp, both with 440 Nm of peak torque. The 200 hp variant is available on Limited specification while the 185hp is fitted on Cherokee Longitude and Longitude+ variants only.

The new 2.2 is matched to Jeep's Active Drive I system, but can be specified with Active Drive II on the Limited 200 hp model. Active Drive I offers Jeep's original rear-axle disconnect system which improves fuel economy, while Active Drive II adds a two-speed power transfer unit, for 2.92:1 'low range' capability and hill-descent control. Both versions carry an impressive towing capacity of 2.5 tonnes.

The Cherokee range has extremely strong technological credentials with the award winning UConnect system, a class leading touchscreen and Sat Nav unit and market-first wireless charging pad, all standard on Limited.

Cherokee also has a 5-star Euro NCAP safety rating and is among the safest Mid-Size SUVs. The Limited 2.2 200 hp versions also offer the option of the 'Technology Group' pack. This 'peace of mind' oriented pack includes Advanced Brake Assist, Lane Departure Warning Plus, Smartbeam automatic main beam dipping function, Full Speed Forward Collision Warning Plus, Adaptive Cruise Control, as well as Start&Stop, mirror with Blind-Spot Monitoring function, and a rear parallel parking assist system.

Engine in detail

Made in the Pratola Serra plant, near Avelino, Italy, the new 2.2 MultiJet II engine delivers 200 hp (147 kW) at 3500 rpm and has a torque of 440 Nm at 2500 rpm making it one of the best performing four-cylinder turbodiesels in class.

Equipped with the innovative automatic nine-speed transmission and 4x4 Jeep Active Drive I, the Cherokee 2.2 MultiJet II 200 hp reaches a top speed of 127 mph. It accelerates from zero to 62 mph in 8.5 seconds, has an average combined fuel consumption figure of 49.6 mpg and CO2 emissions of 150 g/km.

The Cherokee 2.2 MultiJet II 200 hp with Active Drive II and low-range has a top speed of 126 mph, 0-62 mph time of 8.7 seconds, and combined fuel consumption of 46.3 mpg, with 160 g/km of CO2 emissions.

Charity urges car buyers to put safety first, as survey finds brand more important to young drivers

BRAKE, the road safety charity, is encouraging drivers – especially the young – to put safety first when it comes to buying a new vehicle. The call comes on the back of survey results, released on 11th August 2015, showing safety features are less of a priority for young drivers when choosing a vehicle than its brand.

The survey, carried out on behalf of Brake and Direct Line, put safety technologies third on a list of decision-making factors for all drivers, behind reliability and fuel economy. However, less than half of drivers (48%) named safety as one of their three most important considerations. Among young drivers (17-24) it was even fewer – less than two in five (37%) – fewer than chose brand (39%).

'Infotainment' systems, which allow access to social media and other functions unrelated to driving, are also becoming an increasing factor in young drivers decision making and are fitted in many new vehicles. More than one in five (21%) young drivers (17-24) said they wanted such a system, and one in six (17%) said it is one of their most important features in choosing a vehicle. However, these systems could pose a distraction risk similar to that of using a mobile phone. Any attempt to multi-task at the wheel is known to make you at least two or three times more likely to crash.

The survey also showed a lack of engagement among drivers with important industry safety standards such as Euro NCAP. A five star Euro NCAP rating is the easiest way to be sure your vehicle is protecting both you and the people around you on the road, and yet less than a quarter (23%) of drivers said it was something they looked for in a new vehicle.

Brake is urging all drivers to put safety features that protect both themselves and others top of the list when choosing a new vehicle, opting for a five star Euro NCAP rating wherever possible.

Julie Townsend, deputy chief executive, Brake, said: "Vehicle safety technology has come on leaps and bounds, and a large part of the casualty reductions we have seen in recent decades are likely to be attributable to this. It is important that all drivers take advantage of these advances as much as possible, to protect both themselves and the people around them on foot and bike. When choosing a vehicle to drive on public roads, safety should always be the number one consideration. However, any vehicle is ultimately only ever as safe as the person driving it, and choosing the safest possible vehicle still needs to be combined with legal, considerate driving."

Gus Park, director of motor at Direct Line, commented: "Our research shows that younger drivers are most at risk of a crash; however less than half this group chose safety in the top three considerations when buying a car. New cars are now more likely to be fitted with 'infotainment' systems, so we'd urge drivers to be sensible. As with mobile phones, a moment of distraction could potentially cost lives."

Brake campaigns against all forms of driver distraction, including that caused by in-car technology, as part of its drive smart campaign. Tweet us: @Brakecharity, #DriveSmart. Read the survey report.

Recognise early danger signs in senior drivers, GEM urges family members

ROAD SAFETY and breakdown cover specialist GEM Motoring Assist is encouraging family members to be wise to the early signs of unsafe driving in their senior relatives.

There are more than four million drivers aged over 70 in the UK. Many are still driving in their 90s, and nearly 200 centenarians still hold licences.

GEM chief executive David Williams MBE comments: "We want as many people as possible to enjoy the freedom of the open road for as long as possible, but only while they are safe.

"Warning signs relating to failing health or reduced ability can develop slowly and gradually in older drivers. This often means they won't be aware of their changing actions or the growing risks they may pose – to themselves and to others – on journeys.

"The only requirement in law for any driver aged over 70 is to declare every three years that they are fit to drive. In the absence of re-testing and mandatory eyesight checks, it's vital that family members and friends are willing to keep an eye on their senior relatives – and take appropriate action if anything causes them concern."

GEM suggests the following signs that suggest a high risk of danger with a requirement for immediate action, for instance, 'Close calls' – or 'oops factor' moments where a crash almost happens, dents and scrapes on the car as a result of hitting fences, posts or kerbs and traffic penalty tickets, such as speeding and red traffic light violations

GEM also advises family members and friends to look out for the following common signs that could indicate an increase in the risks posed by a senior driver. Most are minor on their own, but can combine to present a significantly increased risk, examples as follows, difficulty seeing traffic lights and road signs, reduced awareness of drivers coming from the side or the rear, not reacting to an approaching emergency siren, slow reaction when required to brake or alter direction suddenly, confusing the accelerator and brake pedals, erratic decision-making, getting flustered or angry over minor matters, difficulty looking over shoulders to check before pulling out, missing familiar exits or turnings, drifting in and out of lanes on motorways and dual carriageways, failing to indicate correctly (or at all) and failing to cancel an indicator.

"If you decide that there is good reason to be concerned about a senior relative, then try to have an informal, friendly chat. If your relative is unwilling to have that conversation, you could attempt to inform their GP, or all else fails, you could report them to the DVLA. You can do this anonymously if you wish," says David Williams.

"Safety has to be everyone's priority, even if you risk upsetting someone close to you. The potential consequences of not acting are ultimately much, much worse."

GEM's recently-published resource, Still Safe to Drive, gives a range of practical advice to help senior drivers stay as safe as possible for as long as possible. Take a look at www.stillsafetodrive.org.uk

New boss Burns pleased with Ax spirit

APPLEDORE 2 AXMINSTER TOWN 0
South West Peninsula League (Division One East)

AXMINSTER Town are still to bank a point this season after returning from Marshford empty handed after a 2-0 defeat.

Injuries and unavailability saw new Tigers' manager Ian Burns forced to employ midfielder Ben Turner in a lone striking role.

After a goal less first 45 The Fishermen took the lead midway through the second period when Joe Barker headed home and Coby Bryant added a second in the 88th minute.

Burns had no complaints, he told View Sport: "Yes, we had four players missing, but these things happen. They (Appledore) were too strong for us in the second-half, although I was pleased with our defensive organisation - I felt we did well to frustrate them for long periods."

Another plus for Burns was the return of talented winger Gary Spiller. "It's great to have him back, he's really quick and direct. I'm hoping he'll be fit enough to start soon."

On the downside, striker Sam Dibling has confirmed that he has limited availability due to family commitments, while Pete Knox will miss seven of the opening 12 matches due to work.

Axminster are due to visit Alphington tomorrow (Wednesday) ahead of Saturday's visit by Brixham AFC (3pm ko).

Tigers: Scott Wells-Burr, Callum Mooney, Leigh Beer, Elliot Dyer, Gary Macauley, Brad-Lee Miller, Tony Pinder, Callum Garrett, Dan Galloway, Ben Turner, Jon Hurford. Subs: Gary Spiller, Joe Urquart, Alex Wheatley.

◆ Axminster Town are holding a quiz night at Tiger Way on Saturday, August 22nd (8pm for 7.30pm) £3 per person, teams of four.

TEIGNMOUTH TOWN 3 SIDMOUTH TOWN 1

SIDMOUTH Town tasted defeat for the first time this season as they went down 3-1 at Coombe Valley.

Manager Josh Stunell and his team were due to visit the EXETER UNIVERSITY students last night (Monday) ahead on next Tuesday's visit by AXMINSTER TOWN.

CHARD TOWN 1 WELLS CITY

Toolstation Western League Division One; att 83

CHARD Town's excellent opening away day victory at Devizes was tempered by defeat at Zembabad Lane on Wednesday evening.

Visitors Wells City took a slender 1-0 lead into the interval courtesy of a James Batchelor strike.

The lead was doubled soon after the turnaround through a Leon Britton free-kick that was heavily deflected.

Ben Haines, with his first goal for a year, halved the deficit. James Boyland struck a post late on but the visitors held on.

"We played well in the second half, but a poor start cost us in the end - they (Wells) are a decent team," said Chard boss Adam Fricker.

There was more injury concern for Fricker who saw defender Leigh Bailey forced off with a cut to his head that later required nine stitches.

Fricker was already without Andy Martin and George Chlopek whose tendonitis looks set to keep him out for several weeks.

In addition the future availability of Sam Clark is in some doubt.

The prolific striker who has netted more the 120 goals in his five seasons with the club has taken up a new job in London.

Robins: J.Hutchings, R.Parris, L.Bailey, D.Hutchings, S.Holland, Sh.Wells-Burr, B.Haines, O.Latas, B.Symes, J.Boylan, E.Butcher. Subs: L.Gillman, M.Westlake (both used), J.Barfoot, A.Tovey (both unused).

Referee: R.Lawrence.

Toolstation Western League Premier - att; 56

CHARD Town battled back from a goal down at half-time to grab all three points on Saturday.

Westbury took the lead in the 17th minute when Gary Tugwell pounced on a defensive error.

The Robins eventually settled and Andy Martin, back after injury, crossed well only for Scott Holland to head wide when well placed. Ed Butcher then forced a fine save from home keeper Callum Hotine.

The equaliser arrived soon after the turnaround when substitute Max Westlake bundled the ball home from close range.

The hosts were forced to play for the last few minutes with ten men after losing a player to injury and having made all three substitutions.

And they were made to pay when Westlake's volley came back off the crossbar and Man-of-the-Match Oscar Latas was in the right place to tuck away the rebound.

Robins: Jason Hutchings, Ryan Parris, Ben Haines (Jamie Barfoot 66), Braeden Symes, Leigh Bailey, Shaun Wells-Burr, Louis Gillman (Darren Hutchings 20), Andy Martin, Scott Holland, Ed Butcher, Oscar Latas. Subs: Darren Hutchings for Louis Gillman 20mins. Max Westlake for Leigh Bailey, 45mins. Unused subs: James Boyland and Adam Tovey not used.

The Robins were due to travel to CHEDDAR last night (Monday) ahead of Saturday's trip to Oaklands Park to take on ROMAN GLASS ST GEORGE.

BURNHAM UTD 1 ILMINSTER TOWN 1

Somerset League Division One (west)

ILMINSTER Town began life back down in the Somerset League Division One with a point from their trip north to Cossis Close.

The Blues got snarled up in the holiday traffic and arrived late so the subsequent sluggish start was to be expected.

The hosts capitalised and took the lead when a ball over the top caught out the Ilminster defence.

It stayed that way until the hour mark when Jon May headed home the equaliser.

Blues manager Darren Manley said: "I'm really happy with the point, Burnham are a decent side."

Manley picked out 17-year-old Jack Male as his Man-of-the-Match in his debut for the first team.

MINEHEAD 0 COMBE ST NICHOLAS 3

COMBE manager Phil Loaring was impressed by his team's second-half showing against a side that he feels will cause many opponents problems at their Recreation Ground home.

A low-key first-half ended goal less. The deadlock was broken 10 minutes after the break when Luke Finn netted from the penalty spot.

Rich Hebditch made it 2-0 in the 65th minute and Joe Simmons rounded things off 15 minutes from time.

"It was a great result, but its early days and I think we have more to offer," said Loaring.

CHARD ROAD RUNNERS with Paul Masters

NINE Chard Road Runners were among the 112 starters in the 27th running of the popular Crewkerne Running Club event THE HASELBURY 10K TRAIL RACE.

It's popularity no doubt is down to the attractive course, excellent race HQ at North Perrott CC, bar and BBQ and it's inclusion in the Somerset race series.

Martin Holly set the pace for CRR's setting off fast from the start as there are narrow gates and stiles to climb over early on the course.

Runners then head off through the grounds of Perrott Hill school, across the fields towards Misterton, takes a route along the river Parrett valley and then ends the lap up a leg sapping steep climb, and then onto a second lap.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS with Dave Mutter

ON Saturday afternoon three AVR's ran the STICKLEPATH FELL RACE which is a tough horseshoe route starting from the Finch Foundry in Sticklepath.

This run has a nasty hill start up and over to Belstone tor, along the ridge via Oak tor to Steeper-ton tor and around to Cosdon Beacon and finally a lovely long descent back to the starting point.

The weather was overcast and cool, perfect running conditions. Tim Lenton ran superbly to finish 2nd in 1:16:45. Robin Carter also had a great run finishing 1st female, 13th overall in 1:41:50.

Robin Britton was very pleased with his run and came 21st, 1:58:35. The race was won by Andy Valance of Oakhampton RC in 1:15:19.
